Secure starting places for the BusinessRun NOW

+++ Numerous companies are already registered +++

On Thursday, September 22nd, the Luxembourg Times BusinessRun will take place again. The popular running event is coming up – finally live again with a supporting program around d'Coque on the Kirchberg plateau. This sportive business event is something you should not miss as company. Because one thing is clear: the BusinessRun is about more than just running: Teambuilding, having fun with colleagues, networking, celebrating and so much more. The BusinessRun package is colorful and extensive, and as a participating company you benefit in every way. Numerous companies have already registered as you can review in the company ranking on the BusinessRun website.

Registration is always in teams of 3 runners, because that's how the teams will be scored on the event evening: The fastest of the men's, women's and mixed teams will be rewarded at the award ceremony. But also the biggest teams, the teams with the most original team names as well as the most creative outfits will receive attracting prizes for their effort. In addition, together with the Chambre des Métiers, the fastest mixed teams from a craft company will be honored in the special "Team Handwerk – Let'z run" competition. And of course, there is no BusinessRun without great atmosphere and dance mood with live music from the band Elliot!

Simply register online at www.business-run.lu. The participation fee per runner is EUR 27,00 plus VAT. The registration deadline is Monday, September 5th, and the platform is open until 11:59 p.m. The entry fee includes a gymbag from Merbag, a personalized bib number, a coupon booklet with discounts and other goodies from partners. Moreover, each finisher will receive the well-deserved finisher medal as well as their individual participation certificate. Participating companies can also book a company marquee to offer their own employees a team meeting point. Team catering for the runners can be ordered by the order form on the Luxembourg Times BusinessRun website.
